

EMPOWERING YOUNG MINDS

2 June 2021

Dear Parents

RE: LOCKDOWN EXTENSION

I wish to confirm, following the Acting Premier's announcement today, that remote learning will continue for another seven days for students from Prep through to Year 10. Our ELC will continue to operate normally.

Commencing Friday 4 June Year 11 and 12 students will resume on-campus learning and their teachers look forward to welcoming them back to resume important VCE studies at school. I am delighted by this concession to allow students in Year 11 and 12 to return on campus, particularly for those studying VCE Units 3 and 4. Year 10 students will continue all of their studies remotely.

Provision will continue to be made for children of 'authorised workers' and vulnerable children.

Additional information will be provided to our Senior School students by our Head of Senior School, Mrs Sharron Frame, shortly. If your Year 11 or 12 child requires the School Bus, please contact Helen Kennington by email bus_coordinator@Oakleigh Grammar.com.au by 10am tomorrow, Thursday 3 June.

Overall, as a school, we are well prepared to facilitate remote learning and on-campus learning as required by the relevant Authorities. Importantly, we are placing much emphasis on student wellbeing across the School during this recent period of Covid outbreak.

Stay Safe
Stay Well
God Bless

Yours sincerely

Mark Robertson
